MINUTES

On Wednesday night, October 7, 1959, the meeting of the Cabinet and Council was called to order in the Empire Room by the President, Gerald Ebker.

Business attended to was as follows:

1. The Christian College Conference, which is to be held on the Pepperdine campus, November 18-21, was discussed. A letter from Pepperdine's President stated that Pepperdine would provide 2¢ per mile to cover traveling expenses. The Council agreed to send all 4 officers as delegates, if at all possible.
2. A Chapel program explaining the College's "Pay-For-A-Day" program to the student body was discussed. Plans were made for the program to be presented on October 23rd.; and, it was decided that the SA would pay for Homecoming Day, October 24th., with the money set aside in the budget for this project.
3. Possibility of a "Dead Day" before final exams was presented to the Council; the President agreed to discuss this matter with the Administration.

A motion for adjournment was made by Gary Ackers; it was seconded by Iris McElroy. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Carole Thomas
